A Word from Fr. Schierer

Faithful Citizenship: Vote No on Questions 1 and 2

As Catholic Christians, we are called to take part in public life with consciences formed by faith, reason, and the truth about the human person. Our responsibility as citizens is not separate from our responsibility as disciples of Jesus Christ.

This election, Virginians will consider three proposed amendments to the Virginia Constitution. Bishop Burbidge has asked Catholics to vote No on Ballot Questions 1 and 2 and to encourage others of good will to do the same. Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger taught that, where political choices concern moral principles that do not admit of exception, compromise or derogation, the Catholic responsibility becomes especially clear. At the same time, Catholics may legitimately reach different prudential judgements on matters where the Church provides moral principles without prescribing one specific policy solution. The three proposed amendments demonstrate examples of this.

Ballot Question 1 would place an expansive claimed right to abortion in the Virginia Constitution. The Church teaches that every human life must be respected and protected from conception. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person" (CCC2270). No law should deny the inherent dignity and right to life of an unborn child. Therefore, Catholics must vote No on Question 1.

Ballot Question 2 would remove Virginia's constitutional recognition of marriage as the union of one man and one woman. Marriage is not simply a creation of the state; it is a covenant established by God, ordered toward the good of husband and wife and the generation and education of children (CCC 1601). Therefore, Catholics must vote No on Question 2.

Ballot Question 3, concerning the restoration of voting rights after incarceration, falls into the category of prudential judgement. Catholics should study the proposal, consider justice, rehabilitation, public safety, mercy, and the common good, and then make a well-formed prudential judgment. There is not one Catholic way to vote on this amendment and reasonable Christians of good will therefore can disagree in good conscience on how to vote.

However, for Ballot questions, 1 & 2, Catholics and indeed all Virginians of good will ought to vote 'no' in order to say 'yes' to human dignity and the common good.
